Registration №: 914/2018
File №: 439 – 2018 – R - SR

March 2018
As amended by § 15 subpar. 1c) of the Act Nr. 131/2002 Coll. on universities as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified (hereinafter referred to as „the University Act“) and the Act Nr. 552/2003 Coll. on exercise of duties in the public interest as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified and the Act Nr. 365/2004 Coll. on fair treatment and anti-discriminatory measures as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified (Anti-discrimination Law) and the Act Nr. 311/2001 Coll. the Labour Code as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified and after approval of the Academic Senate of Matej Bel University (hereinafter referred to as „AS UMB“) and in accordance with the § 9 subpar. 1b) of the Act on universities, Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica (hereinafter referred to as „UMB“) will issue the following Staff Recruitment Policy for work positions of university teachers, researchers, professors, associate professors and managerial personnel of UMB (hereinafter referred to as „Staff Recruitment Policy“ or „statutes“). *

* All functions and work positions of persons in this document refer to both genders.

Article 1

Introductory provisions

1. The statutes regulate the staff recruitment policy and staff recruitment process for work positions of university teachers, researchers, professors and associate professors and managerial personnel of UMB. Recruitment for the abovementioned work positions and functions shall be conducted in line with the approved number and structure of work positions at UMB and in accordance with UMB regulations and statutes.

2. Staff recruitment for work positions of university teachers (hereinafter referred to as „university teachers“), researchers, professors, associate professors and managerial personnel (please see Exhibit 1), refers to the process of selection and recruitment of candidates for selected work positions and functions according to the defined structure. Recruitment includes verification of candidates’ abilities, professional knowledge and background which is deemed necessary or appropriate for particular work positions and functions subject to the recruitment process.

3. Work positions of university teachers, researchers and functions of professors and associate professors are awarded on the basis of a personal interview to be held within a particular UMB workplace.

4. A personal interview for work positions of managerial personnel of UMB or its corresponding faculties and branches is held at a particular faculty or a branch hereof.

5. In all recruitment processes UMB as the Employer (hereinafter referred to as „Employer“) shall adhere to the fair treatment policy and guidelines to be applicable in labour relations or any corresponding relations in connection herewith or governed by specific statutes. Candidates shall not be discriminated against on the basis of gender, religion or belief, race, ethnicity or nationality, health disability, age, sexual orientation, marital or family status, skin colour, language, political or any other opinions and beliefs, national or social origin, property and possessions, family origin or any other social status or after reporting criminality or participating in anti-social activities.

6. The recruitment process for the function of a professor or an associate professor also refers to the recruitment process for the work position of a university teacher.
Article 2
Announcement of a recruitment process

1. Announcement of a recruitment process for work positions of university teachers, researchers and functions of professors and associate professors shall be duly published on a corresponding website of UMB, an official board of UMB or that of a particular faculty or any other branch of UMB providing the work position or the function is related hereto. As amended by HRS4R – the European Strategy of Human Resources of Researchers (including university teachers and professors and associate professors), the recruitment process for work positions of university teachers, researchers, functions of professors and associate professors shall be announced in English language on the EURAXESS website – Researchers in Motion (https://euraxess.ec.europa.eu).

2. The recruitment process for the work position of a university teacher, a researcher, a professor and an associate professor and the function of managerial personnel of the university or that of R UMB shall be announced by the Rector and duly published on the UMB website.

3. The recruitment process for the function of managerial personnel of the UMB faculty shall be announced by the Dean of the faculty on its corresponding website and on the official UMB board.

4. The recruitment process for the function of managerial personnel of the UMB branch (except for the faculty) shall be announced by the director and published on its corresponding website.

5. The recruitment process for the work position or the function shall be announced at least three weeks before its initial stage.

6. Announcement of the recruitment process shall contain the following:
   (a) the Employer’s name,
   (b) the function or the name of the work position subject to the recruitment process (job description),
   (c) professional background and personal skills and abilities for exercise of the function or the work position as amended by law, UMB statutes and working regulations or any other applicable bylaws),
   (d) other criteria and any other requirements applicable in relation to the function/the work position,
   (e) the estimated employment start date,
   (f) the list of mandatory documents to be submitted,
   (g) the day and the place of registration for the recruitment process.

Article 3
Recruitment Committee

1. The recruitment process shall be organised by the recruitment committee to be appointed by the Rector or the Dean of the corresponding faculty or the branch director.

2. The recruitment committee for the recruitment process shall have a minimum of 5 members.

   (a) The recruitment committee for work positions of university teachers, researchers and professors and associate professors shall consist of:
- the Committee Chairman,
- one representative of the UMB Academic Senate or the Faculty Academic Senate,
- one representative of the workplace where the recruitment process is being held,
- other experts in the corresponding field with at least one of them who shall not be employed at the university branch where the recruitment process is being held.

In the recruitment process for the function of a professor or associate professor, the recruitment committee member does not have to be an expert in the same field as the candidate.

(b) The recruitment committee for work positions of managerial personnel shall consist of:
- the Committee Chairman,
- one representative of the UMB Academic Senate or the Faculty Academic Senate,
- one representative of the place where the recruitment process is being held,
- one employee to be appointed by employees’ representative,
- experts in the corresponding field with at least one of them who shall not be employed at the university branch where the recruitment process is being held.

3. The absolute majority of all members of the recruitment committee for work positions of university teachers, researchers, professors and associate professors shall consist of experts in the corresponding field for the particular function or the work position.

4. For recruitment processes for work positions of university teachers, professors and associate professor, the chairman or a member of the recruitment committee should be one from the sponsors or co-sponsors of the study programme within the corresponding field of study or the related field of study where a selected candidate will work.

5. For the recruitment process for the function of a professor, the absolute majority of committee members shall consist of professors or doctors of science (DrSc.) while in case of the recruitment process for the function of an associate professor, the absolute majority of committee members shall consist of associate professors, professors or doctors of sciences (DrSc.).

Article 4
Organisation of the recruitment process

1. The recruitment process shall be organised by the Human Resources Department or the person who is responsible for the agenda at the UMB faculty or its branch. The HR Department or the person in charge of the agenda shall participate in the recruitment process as a secretary and without a right to vote.

2. Documents submitted by candidates shall be examined by the Committee Chairman. Those candidates who meet the prescribed requirements are to be invited for the personal interview at least 7 days in advance and they shall be duly notified of the date, place and time hereof.

3. The Committee Chairman in cooperation with the Vice-Dean for research and development of the UMB faculty is obliged to verify selection criteria for the functions of professors and associate professors. A candidate who does not comply with the prescribed requirements shall not be invited for a personal interview and shall be duly notified hereof by the Dean of the faculty.
4. A candidate who is not present on a personal interview on the day and in the time as set forth in advance either in person or in any other prescribed form (e.g. a video/Skype interview) shall be irrevocably excluded from the recruitment process.

5. The recruitment process is not public. It shall be held within the prescribed timetable in a written, oral or combined form.

6. Members of the recruitment committee as the executive authority are obliged to act individually and impartially. Their membership in the recruitment committee shall guarantee equal conditions for all candidates.

7. Members of the recruitment committee are obliged to keep confidential any opinions and assessment of individual members hereof as well as the outcome of the recruitment process.

8. In the recruitment process for the function of a professor or an associate professor, the recruitment committee shall also evaluate using assessment criteria for the functions of professors and associate professors that have been approved by the UMB Scientific Board.

9. In course of the assessment procedure, candidates are awarded points by members of the recruitment committee.

10. When evaluating candidates, members of the recruitment committee shall award points on the scale range from 0 to 4.

11. The success rate of a candidate in the recruitment process depends on the total number of points awarded by all members of the recruitment committee.

12. Candidate’s assessment is conducted by members of the recruitment committee using a secret ballot. Assessment shall be done immediately after the recruitment process.

13. The Committee Chairman is in charge of considering any other than prescribed documents or written entries by third parties.

14. The recruitment committee shall evaluate all assessment criteria of the recruitment process and based upon the results of the secret ballot they shall determine the priority of candidates.

15. If two candidates have been awarded an equal number of points, the recruitment committee shall suggest the priority of candidates for a particular work position or a function with each single candidate per each sequence.
16. The recruitment committee shall announce the results of the recruitment process to the Rector in writing by minutes from the committee session as amended by Exhibits 7 or 9 within 5 working days from the date of the personal interview while recommending the most appropriate candidate(s) for particular employment. The minutes also contain proposed duration of the employment or specific conditions under which the employment may be prolonged as amended by § 77 subpar. 2 and 4 of the Act Nr. 131/2002 Coll. on universities as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified. The minutes also include the statement from the Dean of the corresponding faculty or the branch manager.

17. The recruitment committee shall announce the results of the recruitment process to the Dean in writing by minutes from the committee session as amended by Exhibits 9 or 10 within 5 working days from the date of the personal interview while recommending the most appropriate candidate for particular employment. The minutes shall also contain proposed duration of the employment.

18. In case of the recruitment process for the function of a professor or an associate professor, the minutes shall also contain the list of assessment criteria to be fulfilled herein and duly signed by the candidate and the Committee Chairman.

19. A successful candidate shall obtain more than half of the points in the recruitment process. Should no candidate fulfil such a condition, the recruitment process is deemed unsuccessful.

20. The priority of candidates within the recruitment process is binding. The employer is bound to sign the employment agreement with a candidate(s) according to their position in the ranking.

21. In the recruitment process for work positions of university teachers, researchers, professors and associate professor, the Rector shall have the right not to accept the result hereof and shall be entitled to announce a new recruitment process.

22. If the recruitment committee fails to select a specific candidate for a particular work position due to non-compliance of candidates with assessment criteria, they are entitled to announce a new recruitment process.

23. The recruitment process for the work positions of university teacher, researcher, professor, associate professor, manager or executives of R UMB is deemed completed after the minutes have been signed by the Rector.

The recruitment process for the work position of a manager of UMB is deemed completed after the minutes have been signed by the Dean/Director.

24. A managerial work position may be occupied without the recruitment process for the period of max. 6 months. The recruitment process shall be completed by this date.

25. The Rector, the Dean or the Director of the UMB branch shall notify candidates of the results of the recruitment process in writing within 10 working days from its completion (Exhibits 11 and 12).

26. Unsuccessful candidates shall be sent all exhibits and schedules attached to their job application forms by the HR Department.
Article 5
Recruitment for positions of university teachers and researchers

1. The employment for the position of a university teacher who does not have a degree of a professor or an associate professor shall only be concluded for the period of up to 5 years within one recruitment process.

2. A university teacher may occupy the function of an associate professor or a professor following one recruitment process for a period of up to 5 years. If a university teacher has occupied such function in three consecutive periods and the total time of his/her employment in such functions has exceeded 9 years, and has a degree of „an associate professor“ or „a professor“, and for the function of a professor a degree of „a professor“, she or he shall be entitled to sign an employment contract with UMB for the work position of a university teacher and to occupy this function for a permanent time period until the age of 70.

3. The employment of a university teacher expires automatically by the end of the academic year when a teacher reaches the age of 70 and the employment has not been terminated earlier. On the basis of the proposal by the Dean, the Rector may fix an employment contract with a university teacher aged 70 or over for the maximum period of one year and such a contract may be renewed repetitively.

4. The employment for the position of a postdoctoral researcher may be fixed for a period of up to 2 years.

5. The position of a postdoctoral researcher may be offered to a candidate who is not more than 5 years after doctoral graduation once the recruitment process was announced.

6. On the basis of the proposal by the Dean, the Rector may recruit an employee for the work position of a university teacher even without a recruitment process for a period of up to one year.

Article 6
Final provisions

1. The following Exhibits and Schedules form an integral part of these statutes:
