ADMISSION PROCEDURE

General information about admission procedure

The condition for participation in the admission procedure is a completed lower level of education: for admission to Bachelor study programs - completed secondary education with the secondary school leaving examination; for admission to Master study programs - completed Bachelor degree of university education with state examination.

In the programs in which the talent test takes place, its successful completion is a condition for progressing to the written part of the entrance exams. Success in the first round will be decided by the Dean on the basis of the recommendation of the commission for entrance examinations. Talent exams for applicants to study fine arts and music arts will take the form of practical exams.

The content of entrance examinations in both rounds is specified in individual fields (including the scope of talent exams) in the theses that each applicant will receive and will be published at www.pdf.umb.sk.

Talent entrance exams are not held for the bachelor's study program of preschool and elementary pedagogy.

In the case of interfaculty teacher study programs, the conditions of admission for the part of the study that is not carried out by PF UMB are formulated and published by the relevant faculty.

If the applicant wants to apply for more fields of study, respectively, study programs at the Faculty of Education, he/she must submit a separate application for each study program separately and pay a fee for each application.

An applicant cannot apply for the same field of study and study program for both full-time and part-time study.

Applications must contain all the annexes listed in the application instructions on p. 3 and confirmation of payment of the fee. The fee is non-refundable. Incomplete applications will be returned. Transfers of applications within study fields and study programs are not possible after 31 March 2022. The Dean decides on alternative or additional dates of the entrance examinations on the basis of the current situation.

Based on the Amendment to the Act on Higher Education Institutions, during an emergency situation, or state of emergency declared in connection with COVID-19, the Ministry of Education determines the method of admission to study of university study in the Slovak Republic - in accordance with the measures of the Public Health Office of the Slovak Republic.

The study of all programs and forms is carried out in the Slovak language, therefore it is necessary to master the Slovak language at the B2 level. We recommend that the applicant from abroad check and document his / her mastery of the Slovak language:

- graduation exam in Slovak language
- to submit an ECL certificate, the name of the certification network: the European Consortium for the Certificate of Attainment in Modern Languages, or.

- Certificate of command of the Slovak language at the B2 level issued by a language school included in the network of schools and school facilities of the Ministry of Education, Science and Research of the Slovak Republic (the list is available on the website https:// www.minedu.sk/siet-skol-a -skolskych-zariadenie-slovenskej-republiky /).

The knowledge of the Slovak language can be verified for foreign applicants by a test and / or an interview in the Slovak language.

Proof of medical fitness is not required.

THE PROCEDURE FOR AN APPLICANT'S ADMISSION WITHOUT THE DOCUMENTS PROVING THE COMPLETE HIGH SCHOOL EDUCATION OR COMPLETE VOCATIONAL TRAINING IS:

1. There are the Faculty of Education MBU special conditions and procedures concerned to those ones who have received asylum, or subsidiary protection or temporary refuge:

- an applicant has to prove the achievement a full/complete high school education or a full/complete vocational education according to § 56 par. 1 of the Act about Higher Education Institutions in a form of the Legal Approval on the Recognition of Evidence of Education by the Regional Office of Education in the Slovak Republic (about obtaining complete high school or secondary vocational education).
- a study applicant must meet the criteria for faculty study admission.
- the condition of achieving a complete high school or complete vocational education is possible to prove by a solemn declaration (<https://www.pdf.umb.sk/en/students-and-study-programmes/>) and by a test taking of general study prerequisites. An applicant's solemn declaration cannot replace the unfinished high school or vocational education. Neither an applicant's solemn declaration nor a test of general study prerequisites applies to the applicants for the 2nd Master degree university study level.
- a test of general study prerequisites, as one of the conditions for the minimum level of admission, is a mandatory part of the admission procedure. The test will be performed by the Faculty of Education MBU, and an applicant will be informed about its form, dates and timing in advance.
- There is an admission fee. An applicant may apply for this fee remission to the Dean of Faculty of Education MBU.
- the students who have been guaranteed an asylum, temporary refuge status or subsidiary protection are not obliged to pay this admission fee.

2. Faculty of Education MBU special conditions and procedures in relation to those ones who have not been guaranteed asylum, subsidiary protection or temporary refuge status:

- submits a Legal Approval on the Recognition of Education diplomas by the Regional Office of Education in the Slovak Republic (about complete high school or vocational education).
- a study applicant must meet all the study admission conditions stated by the Faculty of Education MBU.

Bachelor study programs

The evidence of successful completion of the Matura examination (secondary school leaving exam) for admission to bachelor's study programs must be delivered to the study department of PF UMB immediately after its completion. The admission is based on the result of the entrance exam.

Master study programs

Evidence of successful completion of the bachelor's study, including a statement of the weighted study average achieved during the bachelor's study (confirmed by the study department of the faculty where the applicant completed the bachelor's study), must be delivered to the study department of PF UMB. The admission is based on the weighted study average achieved in Bc. study of the specific study program.

- The principles of conducting entrance examinations apply to full-time and part-time study. The Dean of PF UMB has the right, based on the current situation in the number of applicants for the relevant program, to decide not to take the entrance exams or any part of them.
- The Dean of PF UMB has the right, based on the current status (mostly according to the number of registered applications), to decide not to open a certain study program in the given academic year.
- The basic condition for admission to study is the successful completion of entrance examinations, unless the Dean decides otherwise.
- In the case of a lower number of applicants than the planned number of accepted students, the Dean of the faculty may decide to waive the entrance examination
- In the case of a higher number of applicants than the planned number of accepted students in the absence of admission interviews, the criteria for admission to the Bc program will be the secondary school average (taking into account the results of the school-leaving examination) and to the Master study program the weighted study average from Bc. study (taking into account the results of the state bachelor's exam).
- Within 30 days after the end of the entrance examinations, applicants will receive a notification of admission or non-admission to the study. In accordance with the Statute of PF UMB, applicants may appeal against the Dean's decision not to admit to study within 8 days of receiving the notice.
- In special cases, the decision on admission may be conditional, which, after the completion of a defined condition, will take effect within a specified period.
- When admitting foreign students, the procedure is the same as for students from the Slovak Republic and the Dean of the faculty decides based on the recommendations of the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports of the Slovak Republic, respectively, proceeds individually in accordance with the Act on Higher Education Institutions.
- The Dean decides on the alternate or additional dates of entrance examinations based of the current situation.

Applicants for studies who have completed the previous level of education abroad are required by Act no. 422/2015 Coll. on the Recognition of Evidence of Education and on the Recognition of Professional Qualifications and on Amendments to Certain Acts to submit recognition of evidence of education obtained outside the territory of the Slovak Republic. The decision on the recognition of diplomas must be submitted by the admitted applicant no later than on the day of enrollment.

The content and criteria of entrance exams are the same for full-time and part-time forms of study at PF UMB. They are updated and approved annually in AS PF UMB. They are published on the faculty's website.

The entrance examination for individual Bachelor and Master's study programs

Education of Children, Youth and Adults (Bachelor's degree)* a new study program that is in the process of accreditation. – The prerequisite for admission is a completed secondary education with a high school diploma of school leaving examination. The condition for registration into the admission procedure is the delivery of the certificate of the school leaving examination, as well as the motivation letter, which the applicant will send together with the application. In the motivation letter, the applicant shall state the reasons for the given study (including any practical experience in working with children, youth and adults).

The admission procedure will consist of (1) a written test in pedagogy, psychology, sociology, philosophy, social studies in the scope of secondary school curriculum and a general overview of current issues of education of children, youth and adults in Slovakia and (2) a personal interview complementary to the letter of motivation, where the applicant justifies his / her interest in the study program, points out his / her abilities and involvement in working with children, youth and adults in non-formal education, taking into account (3) the candidate's educational achievement of the whole secondary school study and also of the semester of the last year of study. All applicants undergo a personal interview about the study.

About acceptance resp. non-admission is determined by the order that the candidate obtains by the sum of the points obtained in the written test, in a personal interview and on the basis of the benefit from secondary school studies. If the candidate has not achieved the condition of half the number of points in any part, it can be determined for the decision on non-admission. The Dean of the Faculty decides on the admission of the applicant. The Dean of PF UMB has the right, based on the current status of the number of applicants in the relevant program, to decide not to take the entrance examinations or a part thereof.

*Note: The originally implemented study programs in the bachelor's degree Andragogy and Pedagogy - Leisure Pedagogy replace the new study program Pedagogy of Children, Youth and Adults in full-time and part-time form.

Management and Counselling in Education (Master's degree)*

For the study of the master's study program Management and Counseling in Education, specific skills associated with the performance of the helping profession are required. Furthermore, the applicant's study skills are expected to help him cope with the requirements of higher education: systematic knowledge from the core of the bachelor's program "Education of Children, Youth and Adults" (or from any comparable bachelor's program in pedagogical sciences), digital skills (MS Office Word, MS Excel, MS PowerPoint).

The basic condition for admission of an applicant into this study is the completion of the 1st (Bachelor') degree in a study program belonging to the study field Social Sciences in Slovakia, or a comparable 1st degree study program abroad.

The admission procedure consists of an (1) interview with the applicant, during which he / she demonstrates the results of his / her previous studies at the 1st (Bachelor') level of university studies, (2) introduces the topic and results of the final bachelor's thesis, (3) a portfolio documenting own activities and involvement in the practice of education of children, youth and adults, respectively, seniors.

About acceptance resp. non-admissions decides the order that the candidate will receive by the sum of points from the individual components.

The Dean of the Faculty decides on the admission of the applicant. The Dean of PF UMB has the right, based on the current status of the number of applicants in the relevant program, to decide not to take the entrance examinations or a part thereof.

*Note: The originally implemented study programs in the master's degree Andragogy and Social Pedagogy replace the new study program Management and Counseling in Education (Mgr.) in full-time and part-time form. The study is designed with a focus on (1.) social and educational activities for children and youth or (2.) education and training of youth, adults and seniors. Two paths are created for the student, trajectories through the study through his choice of the recommended system of compulsory elective subjects. Depending on the trajectory student acquire knowledge, skills / competences and attitudes. In addition to the university diploma, the public-school diploma, the graduate of the program also obtains a diploma supplement, which contains all completed subjects during the study, which documents his / her competences acquired during the study.

Pre-primary and Elementary Teacher Education (Bachelor's degree) – The basic condition for admission to study is to obtain a complete secondary education completed by a school-leaving examination. Applicants who meet the defined criteria in the following areas will be admitted: (1) the result of a written test to determine the candidate's intellectual abilities as well as their general knowledge; (2) the average of marks from the year-end evaluation for the 1st - 3rd year of secondary school in the subjects Slovak language and literature, mathematics and foreign language; (3) results of graduation exams. Furthermore, the applicant's activities will be taken into account, which must be documented by certificates, certificates, diplomas, or confirmations from the organization where the activity was performed. The following activities will be evaluated: basic art school, secondary school professional activity (SOČ), participation in competitions in artistic, sports, creative and other activities, volunteering in the field of work with children of preschool and early school age, study abroad. Applicants from abroad must prove their command of the Slovak language at the B2 level. Proof of medical fitness is not required. Please note, however, that the compulsory composition of the subjects of study also includes those in which the student demonstrates sports fitness. The Dean of the Faculty decides on the admission of the applicant. The Dean of PF UMB has the right, based on the current status of the number of applicants in the relevant program, to decide not to take the entrance examinations or a part thereof.

Primary Teacher Education (Master's degree) – The basic condition for admission is the completion of a bachelor's degree program in the study field Teaching and Pedagogical Sciences. Graduates of the study program of pre-school and elementary pedagogy, for whom this study is primarily intended, will be admitted on the basis of the weighted study average of their bachelor's study. For acceptance according to this criterion, a critical weighted average limit will be determined. Graduates of other programs in the field of teaching and pedagogical sciences and graduates of preschool and elementary pedagogy with a weighted average above the critical threshold will be admitted on the basis of the results of the entrance exam, which will verify their prerequisites for studying Primary Teacher Education. Applicants from abroad must prove their command of the Slovak language at the B2 level. The Dean of the Faculty decides on the admission of the applicant. The Dean of PF UMB has the right, based on the current status of the number of applicants in the relevant program, to decide not to take the Social Work (Bachelor's degree) – The basic condition for admission to study is the completion of the secondary education by the Matura (secondary school leaving) examination. The content and criteria of entrance examinations are determined by the Department of Social Work, Faculty of Education, UMB and its study guarantor. The selection of candidates is made on the basis of the results of the oral interview. The content of the oral interview will be the following thematic areas: (1) demonstration of the necessary personal prerequisites and abilities for university studies, (2) motivation to study, (3) solving the social situation and (4) current socio-political overview. The Dean of the Faculty decides on the admission of the applicant. The Dean of PF UMB has the right, based on the current status of the number of applicants in the relevant program, to decide not to take the entrance examinations or a part thereof.

Social Work (Master's degree) – The prerequisite for admission into this study is successful completion of Bachelor's study of Social Work or of a related study Program (Pedagogy, Psychology, Andragogy, Sociology etc.). The entrance exam has a form of a written test of the contents of the main subjects of Social Work Bachelor's study Program: historical, societal and philosophical bases of Social Work, Theory of Social Work, Methods of Social Work, Social Policy, and Social Security. The Dean of the Faculty decides on the admission of the applicant. The Dean of PF UMB has the right, based on the current status of the number of applicants in the relevant program, to decide not to take the entrance examinations or a part thereof.

Psychology (Bachelor's degree) – The conditions for this study program are set as follows: the method of selection of candidates is based on a written test of knowledge orientation (from the subject of psychology and biology) in the scope of secondary school curriculum, assessment of knowledge of English text at B1 level, assessment of general intellectual abilities (solving verbal, numerical, logical and abstract assignments) and analysis of personality profile assumptions. The standard form of entrance exams is written tests. The content of the entrance tests respects fair access to education and in the content and scope of the written tests do not go beyond the scope of secondary education. The method of conducting written tests, as well as their evaluation and publication of results, is ensured consistently anonymously using the candidates' code and secrecy of their names. Only after assessment, by means of a computer program and the creation of an independent and objective order, will the names of the candidates be assigned to the codes.

The requirements placed on candidates and the method of their selection are a guarantee of the selectivity of candidates with the necessary skills and prerequisites.

In the event of the state of emergency, it is possible to accept as an alternative form of admission the study results of the study achievements during the whole secondary school attendance and the results from the study achievements in the profile subjects during the last winter term of secondary study (Slovak language, mathematics, English, psychology and biology). These would be parts of a written knowledge test.

The Dean of the Faculty decides on the admission of the applicant. The Dean of PF UMB has the right, based on the current status of the number of applicants in the relevant program, to decide not to take the entrance examinations or a part thereof.

Psychology (Master's degree) – Admission to this study program is carried out on the basis of the study results achieved in the bachelor's degree and the relevant activities of the applicant for the field of study. The basic condition for admission is completed study at the bachelor's degree of university study in accordance with § 56 par. 2 of Act no. 131/2002 on universities. The candidate may receive a maximum of 100 points in the admission procedure. Based on the points obtained, the admissions committee will compile the ordered list of candidates. Applicants with the highest number of points obtained are going to be accepted. Three criteria are assessed: (1) total study achievement during the bachelor's degree expressed by a weighted study average - 50 points; (2) achievement from the defense of the bachelor's thesis - 30 points; (3) completed relevant activities to the field of study - 20 points. Another condition for admission to study is the relationship of the field of study of the completed bachelor's study to the study of psychology. The applicant is required to complete a previous bachelor's degree in psychology or a master's degree in psychology teaching (in combination). The criteria used in the assessment and selection of applicants for study ensure the evaluation of study prerequisites for university studies characterized by long-term academic performance. The criterion of activity expresses the degree of motivation and commitment of the applicant beyond the scope of study obligations and at the same time allows to estimate the interest orientation of the applicant for study. The applicant can obtain points for activities such as: active participation in a scientific professional psychological event (such as a conference), participation in an educational activity accredited by MŠVVaŠ SR, MZ SR, MPSVaR SR, active participation in the SVOUČ competition on departmental level, active student participation in foreign mobility within the field of study of psychology. The conditions of the admission procedure are reviewed and updated annually.

The Dean of the Faculty decides on the admission of the applicant. The Dean of PF UMB has the right, based on the current status of the number of applicants in the relevant program, to decide not to take the entrance examinations or a part thereof.

Evangelical Theology and Mission (Bachelor's degree) – The condition for admission is successful completion of secondary school graduation examinations, applicant's basic knowledge of the Bible and Church History (according to prescribed references) and communication skills. Applicants are ranked according to the results of the admission procedure, applicants with highest level of abilities are accepted. In case the Dean decides to waive the entrance examination, the best graduates of secondary schools will be admitted. The Dean of the Faculty decides on the admission of the applicant. The Dean of PF UMB has the right, based on the current status of the number of applicants in the relevant program, to decide not to take the entrance examinations or a part thereof.

Evangelical Theology (Master's degree) – The applicant has to provide evidence about successful completion of Bachelor's Program of Evangelical theology and mission or a related theological study program. The entrance examination committee assesses the results of bachelor studies using a point scale. The quality of knowledge related to evangelical theology and mission is assessed. The candidates with the highest number of points and knowledge level will be admitted to this study. The Dean of the Faculty decides on the admission of the applicant. The Dean of PF UMB has the right, based on the current status of the number of applicants in the relevant program, to decide not to take the entrance examinations or a part thereof.

Teaching of Music Art (Bachelor's degree) – The condition for admission to study is passing a talent test: from playing a musical instrument and solo singing at level II of ZUŠ – elementary art and music schools (a graduate of solo singing at ZUŠ has to master playing a musical instrument at the level of the 5th year of ZUŠ), knowledge of the content of music education is required at the level of a graduate of the 1st cycle of ZUŠ. The candidate must have a healthy voice with a potential to develop, also appropriately developed musical abilities (rhythmic feeling, auditory preconditions, harmonic feeling, musical memory) and a relationship to the chosen profession. The talent test includes a written hearing test. The Dean of the Faculty decides on the admission of the applicant.
