

Cross-border litigation in Central-Europe: EU private international law before national courts (CEPIL)

Project Number: 800789

Duration: September 2018 – August 2020

Total planned expenditure: 43 554,35 €

Type of the Project: Justice Action Grant / H2020

Implemented by: Department of International, European Law and Legal Communication, Faculty of Law

The project aims at the correct and uniform implementation of EU Private International Law (EU PIL) instruments in the Central European (CE) Member States to examine whether the EU's current judicial system works optimally to create "a Europe of law and justice" in the CE Member States, including the questions whether (1) the current institutional architecture is susceptible of securing an "effective remedy" for cross-border litigants, (2) CE national courts deal appropriately with uniform EU PIL and (3) CE experiences call for a reform. To obtain the project goals, different type of activities are planned: research and analytical activities; reach out to practitioners (attorneys, judges etc.) and policy-makers; contribution to mutual learning and identification best practices, etc. From the project results a large number of persons benefit - CE judges, practitioners and policy-makers - European citizens and the enterprises having cross-border matters and scientific community and higher education Expected results.

