

Self-identification in a multi-ethnic surroundings as a resource of ethnic tolerance

Project Number: 2019 – 1 – SK01- KA201 - 060682

Duration: September 2019 – August 2022

Total planned expenditure: 124 350 €

Type of the Project: Erasmus +

Implemented by: Methodical Center for Slovaks Living Abroad at Matej Bel University, rectorate

The project aims to create an output identifying such elements in the minority environment in the Slovak culture that will contribute to the self-identification of the individual members with an emphasis on a positive perception of being different, which should result in an increased level of the mutual tolerance in multi-ethnic environments. The material output will consist of the didactic material, which will be a practical aid to teachers, educators and cultural workers working either in the environment of Slovaks living abroad, or in the partner countries. The project proposal represents European added value, at European and even at global level as it contributes to strengthening the cultural identity of the Slovaks in the diaspora, contributes to Europe's cultural heritage and by respecting diversity not only in Europe it supports tolerance towards all ethnic groups. The project will include transnational project meetings, identification and summarization of research carried out so far in Slovak dialectology, folk culture and scenic expression, as well as conferences, training, preparation and testing of didactic material and a preparation of practical guides prepared by foreign Slovaks.
